4 Last week updates/shoutouts

- Irene shouted out Naz for helping out with Law School Basics.
- Julia L shouted out Adam for tidying up our merch store room.
- Maja shouted out everyone who is helping out with comps judging. She specifically shouted out Ariana for stepping in at the last minute.
- Adam shouted out Eden for putting together the SULS Weekly.

- Ben H shouted out Irene for running Law school basics and the Education Guide event. He also shouted out Kelly for running the HSF Event and for her work as sponsorship director.
- Eden shouted out Julia L for helping with membership information.

5 AGM Motions

Eden reminded the executive to submit proposed motions to him before next week's meeting noting the constitutional requirements around giving notice for AGM motions. In response to a question from Adam, Eden also clarified the procedure around bylaw changes.

Ben M noted that he wanted to introduce a motion about increasing the transparency around sponsorship, particularly about how sponsorship money is distributed to portfolios when firms express an intention to directly fund them. Further discussion on this was tabled for next week's meeting.

6 Training Reminder

Eden reminded the executive to complete the 'Responding to Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault Training for Student Leaders' training before the 31st of March.

7 Expanded Streams of Revenue in Light of Post-Pandemic Revivals

Ben H, Thrishank and Adam proposed the introduction of certain articles of merchandise to the SULS store. An expression of interest procedure for the merch was agreed upon to ensure there is sufficient demand.

8 Sensitivity to Queer students/issues

Edward reminded everyone of the importance of using LGBTQIA+ inclusive language especially in the SULS office, and that failing to do so makes the law building a very unwelcoming space for queer students.

9 Other Business

Yijun asked whether there was a set date for our Committee Training Day. Ben H suggested the 23rd or 24th of April noting the exam period coming up.
