5 Portfolio Updates

Priya shared the Law Ball runsheet with executives and ran through the logistics for the day. Priya asked executives to assign themselves to tasks and shifts on the sheet. Priya also explained further about placecards, ticket scanning, moving between spaces in the venue and other logistics. Priya flagged the names of the Wellbeing Officers, and that she would be doing a socials post soon so people were aware who to approach.

Lucas also noted he would purchase ear plugs so that they could be available to members who need them on the evening. Niveditha emphasised the importance of executives helping and welcoming attendees on the night.

Julia reminded executives to take note of the office cleaning roster this week, with Thursday executives being assigned to cleaning.

Naz noted that Simon Bronitt will be leaving the Law School after his current term concludes. Naz suggested bringing together a joint thank you letter that any members could contribute, especially given his support for SULLS. Vaughan agreed it was unfortunate that Simon is leaving given his contributions to students' experience at the Law School. Vaughan noted the importance of students' voices being heard in the process of a new Dean being appointed.
