6 SRC Reach Out

Sophia mentioned that the SRC has reached out to SULLS and other societies regarding revelations about the surveillance of students at student protests at universities. Currently, it appears that a lot of information appears to be redacted in the GIPA application and it is difficult to ascertain the full extent of the information. The matter appears to be more related to the actions of NSW Police rather than the University, and SULLS' current approach is to see what other information comes out of the process before we

7 Miscellaneous

a. Invitations to the Dean

Wendy mentioned if you would like to invite Dean Simon Bronitt to an event, please email his assistant a 'save the date' email 4-6 weeks in advance.

b. SALS Committee engagement

Wendy mentioned that there appears to be a desire for greater committee engagement. She suggested the following activities:

- i. End of Sem picnic 1-3pm, Saturday 26 June
- ii. Committee-wide meetings once a month to increase engagement and create a sense of belonging within SALS. This is for committee members if they have anything they would like to raise and the Executive to give a monthly update of their portfolios. Cameron expressed his support with this idea. Wendy mentioned that committee members may want to be involved with other portfolios, or run a new program or initiative. Mahmoud mentioned that he would like some assistance with the Murrang Arts Initiative.

Georgia asked if we could use the Facebook group to share opportunities, so that things are documented/listed for committee members. Wendy endorsed this suggestion.

c. Fraudulent emails

Tiana reminded executive members to be vigilant about checking the senders of emails as there have been several instances of fraudulent emails being sent to members asking for sensitive information. If members are unsure about the legitimacy of the email, they should contact the purported sender by Slack.
